About
AAFT School of Fine Arts

*Art That Speaks.
Artists Who Lead.*

At the AAFT School of Fine Arts, students don't just learn to paint or sculpt – they learn to provoke,

express, and reimagine.

Whether it's a canvas, a street wall, or a mixed media installation, our learners are trained to see the world
differently
and shape
it visually.

The curriculum covers classical techniques, modern experimentation, conceptual art, and exhibition building. Students also learn storytelling, criticism, and curation – taught by active Indian artists, curators, and art directors.

With this study tour to Rome, students step into a living museum – where every corner is an inspiration and every moment is a masterpiece.

Rome University of Fine Arts

Rome's Creative Core – Where Artists Evolve

RUFA (Rome University of Fine Arts) is a modern art school rooted in centuries-old Italian tradition.

It offers programs in painting, sculpture, multimedia, design, and photography – all with a contemporary twist.

Students are mentored by Europe's most innovative artists and creators, and learn through studio practice, public exhibitions, gallery tours, and cultural immersion. The school's central Rome location places students in the middle of artistic history

- yet focused on the future of visual culture.

It's where your art
meets the world stage
