About
AAFT
School of Music

Find Your Sound. Amplify Your Voice.

The AAFT School of Music is built for dreamers, performers, producers, and game-changers. Whether you're into indie, jazz, classical, or experimental – we give you the tools to explore, compose, and perform with impact.

Students train in live sound labs, production suites, jamming rooms, and music business masterclasses. Our mentors are artists and producers who've performed on global stages and recorded with top acts. From stage presence to studio mixing, we focus on making each student an all-round musical force.

This study tour to Rome opens a world of new notes –
where culture, collaboration, and creativity come together in harmony.

About

Saint Louis School of Music

Rome's Most Iconic Hub for Modern Musicians

Saint Louis School of Music is where passion becomes performance. Based in Rome, it's one of Europe's most respected contemporary music academies – offering world-class training in vocals, jazz, pop, composition, and music production.

With recording studios, performance halls, and a faculty of celebrated musicians, the school offers real industry mentorship.

Guest sessions often include Grammy-level artists, producers, and tour performers from Italy and beyond.

From mastering your instrument to producing your first EP – this is the place to find your voice, build your network, and create music that moves the world.
